• Methane concentrations ~150-200 ft E of SS-25 are still elevated (up to 25 ppm)
• Methane levels immediately W and NW of well SS-25 have been decreasing but are still higher than background
• SCAQMD inspectors used a portable TVA-1000 monitor to confirm these findings and complement the LICOR data
• Videos were taken with FLIR cameras to identify the presence of natural gas