The California Air Resources Board (CARB or Board) held a meeting on February 13, 2020 at the Shafter Veteran's Hall, 309 California Avenue, Shafter, California. Key items presented are summarized below.

DISCUSSION ITEMS

20-3-1: Public Meeting to Consider Assembly Bill 617 Community Emissions Reduction Program – Shafter

The Board approved the Shafter Community Emissions Reduction Program (Shafter Program) developed to meet the requirements of Assembly Bill (AB) 617. The Shafter Program was developed through a partnership between the San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District (SJVAPCD) and the Shafter Community Steering Committee comprised of residents of Shafter, non-profit organizations, members from local businesses, and local government officials. CARB staff reviewed the Shafter Program and determined that it meets the criteria set out in the AB 617 legislation and the Community Air Protection Blueprint, in addition to reflecting community priorities. In addition to approving the Shafter Program, the Board directed the SJVAPCD to take actions to strengthen implementation of the Shafter Program, and to report on progress in the Shafter community.

20-3-2: Public Meeting to Consider Assembly Bill 617 Community Emissions Reduction Program – South Central Fresno

The Board approved South Central Fresno community emissions reduction program (South Fresno Program) developed to meet the requirements of AB 617. The South Fresno Program was developed through a partnership between the SJVAPCD and the South Central Fresno Community Steering Committee, comprised of South Fresno residents, non-profit organizations, local businesses, and local government officials. CARB staff reviewed the South Fresno Program and determined it met the criteria set out in the AB 617 legislation and the Community Air Protection Blueprint, in addition to reflecting community priorities. The Board also directed the SJVAPCD to take additional actions to strengthen implementation of the South Fresno Program, and to provide bi-annual reports on progress.
