Compliance Advisory Bulletin Rule 314 – Fees for Architectural Coatings

This compliance advisory is directed to all manufacturers of Recycled Coatings, as defined in Rule 1113 – Architectural Coatings. On January 9, 2009, the SCAQMD Governing Board amended Rule 314 – Fees for Architectural Coatings, exempting recycled coatings from assessment of fees. The specific language of the exemption follows:

- (p)(2) Fees shall not be assessed on recycled coatings distributed or sold into or within the District by a certified recycled paint manufacturer. Recycled Coating is as defined in Rule 1113, and certified paint manufacturer shall be as certified pursuant to Rule 1113.

Recycled paint manufacturers remain subject to all other applicable provisions of SCAQMD rules, including Rule 1113 and Rule 314, which requires the submittal of an Annual Quantity and Emissions Report. VOC content testing shall be conducted pursuant to Rule 1113 (e)(1), and VOC data submitted in the Annual Quantity and Emissions Report required by Rule 314 may be based on averaged values obtained through periodic VOC testing performed during the reporting year.
